Dear Senator Mansfield:

In view of your interest in Mr. [redacted], I am writing to advise you of the current status of his application for employment with us.

Our representative, Mr. [redacted] recently contacted Mr. [redacted] to discuss employment possibilities. Mr. [redacted] advised the representative of his plans to continue his studies at Gonzaga University and will, therefore, not be available for employment until next June when he graduates. In view of this we are placing Mr. [redacted] application in a pending status for the present. Mr. [redacted] however, does plan to get in touch with our representative this November at [redacted] at which time further consideration will be given to his application.

We wish to thank you for referring Mr. [redacted] to us, and will advise you as to the final outcome of his application with us.

Sincerely,
